Linux Consultants Guide

Joshua Drake

This is a LinuxPorts.Com Document for the Linux Documentation Project.

The current version of the Consultants Guide is v.7.6.6 and contains major changes. Specifically, all listings only contain basic information. If you would like to see detailed information about a particular consultant you will have to click on the associated link.

If you are reading this HOWTO on a connection that is 56K or less we strongly suggest you use the online search located at: http://www.linuxports.com/ldp/consultants.lxp

Also, iff you are not using a link capable format, such as postscript you may search for the consultant by name or city at http://www.linuxports.com.

Chapter 1. License and Copyright

Chapter 2. How can I help?

We will try to provide comprehensive coverage for all Linux Consultants. However, time is of the essence, and this document is not a revenue maker. We provide this information in the hope that it will be useful to both the Linux Community and to newly converted Linux users. We are always interested in feedback!

2.1. Adding/Managing your Consultants Guide entry

To manage or add a consultant entry, please point your web browser to http://www.linuxports.com/ and select Add or Edit under the Consultants panel.

2.2. Assisting with the Consultants Guide

If you would like to assist with this document, there are several primary avenues that are extremely helpful.

- You can donate to the continued development of the Consultants−Guide via Paypal. Just click on the link to donate $2.50 USD. Donate $2.50
- Purchase an OpenBook! If you purchase OpenDocs books, OpenDocs Publishing will donate a portion of the proceeds back to the Open Source Documentation Fund. This fund assists authors financially while they continue to write documentation for Open Source projects.
- Provide a monetary contribution to the document. By contributing, you can even request what you would like to have updated, written, or expanded within the document. To provide a monetary contribution, please contact Command Prompt, Inc. You may also contact Joshua Drake.
- If you have written something that you would like to contribute, please email it to poet@linuxports.com
